Item 16 Re-election of the chartered auditing firm Ernst & Young Aktiebolag as the company's auditor for the period extending from the end of the 2016 AGM until the end of the 2017 AGM. The auditing firm has informed the company that the Authorised Public Accountant Erik Sandström will be appointed as auditor in charge.

Item 17 It is proposed that the Nominating Committee consists of the Chair of the Board and two additional members and that the Chair of the Board shall not chair the Committee. One of these two members, in addition to the Chair of the Board, must be a representative of the company's largest shareholder and one shall be a representative of one of the company's other four largest shareholders. Neither of these two members may also be a Board member. In the event that, during the Nominating Committee's mandate period, one or more shareholders that have appointed members of the Nominating Committee are no longer among the five largest shareholders in terms of the number of votes, the members appointed by these shareholders shall relinquish their positions and the shareholder(s) that have taken a position among the five largest shareholders in terms of number of votes shall have the right to appoint their own representatives or offer the shareholder who is next in line in terms of number of votes a place on the Nominating Committee, so that there are three Committee members. Item 10 – Dividends

The Board of Directors proposes a dividend as follows:

- a) an ordinary dividend of SEK 0.30 per share, according to the Board's proposal previously announced in the year-end report for 2015 and in the profit allocation proposal in the Annual Report for 2015, and
- b) an extra dividend of SEK 0.20 per share, according to an increased proposal by the Board, press released on 19 April, 2016 (in total SEK 0.50 per share).

The background of the increased proposal is the positive development of the group during the past two years, resulting in a very strong balance sheet with a high equity ratio. At the end of 2015, the company was debt-free with a large liquidity reserve and the equity ratio was 77 percent. The proposed extra dividend improves Rottneros' current and future financing and capital structure and the rate of return on capital employed will increase. The Board's long-term objective is to transform the company's financial structure through increased borrowing.

This is an in-house translation. In case of any discrepancies between the Swedish original and this translation, the Swedish original shall prevail.

The Board's statement regarding the dividend in accordance with Chapter 18, Section 4 of the Swedish Companies Act will be made available in the manner described below, together with the other documents.

The record date for receiving the dividend is proposed to be Wednesday, 1 June 2016. With the proposed record date the dividend is expected to be paid out through Euroclear Sweden AB on Tuesday, 7 June 2016. The last day of trading in the company's shares including the right to dividend is Monday, 30 May 2016.

Item 18 –Guidelines for remuneration of senior executives

The Board of Directors proposes that the AGM approve the following guidelines with respect to the remuneration of the senior executives.

At present, 'senior executives' refers to the five people who, including the CEO, form the group management.

The remuneration paid to the CEO and other senior executives shall comprise:

- fixed salary;
- possible variable component of remuneration;
- other benefits; and
- pension benefits.

The total remuneration package must be in line with market rates and competitive in the labour market in which the executives work.

Fixed salary and variable remuneration are related to the responsibilities and powers held by each executive. The variable component of remuneration, which is cash, is based on outcomes in relation to defined and measurable targets and is capped in relation to fixed salary. The variable component of remuneration for the CEO is capped at 50 per cent of the fixed salary, and the variable component of remuneration for other senior executives is capped at 30 per cent of the fixed salary. The programme for the variable component of remuneration should be designed so that the Board of Directors can impose conditions, restrict or decline to make payments of variable component of remuneration in exceptional financial circumstances if such measure is considered to be reasonable and compatible with the duties of the company in relation to shareholders, employees and other interested parties.

The period of notice is between six months and one year should notice be given by the executive and between one and two years should notice be given by the company. The CEO is entitled to severance pay and a salary during the period of notice of in total up to an amount corresponding to the fixed salary for two years.

Pension benefits are either defined benefit or defined contribution plans or a combination thereof, and executives are entitled to receive pension no earlier than from the age of 65.

Matters relating to remuneration for the executive management are dealt with by the Compensation Committee. The principles of remuneration and other terms of employment for the executive management, together with remuneration for the CEO, shall be decided by the Board of Directors.

If the company in a particular case assigns an individual Board member tasks on behalf of the company over and above regular Board and committee duties, the Board of Directors shall determine the level of remuneration, which must be reasonable and in line with market rates.

The Board of Directors will conduct an annual evaluation of whether or not to propose a long-term incentive programme to the AGM.

The Board of Directors shall be authorised to depart from these guidelines if in an individual case there are special reasons for doing so.

This is an in-house translation. In case of any discrepancies between the Swedish original and this translation, the Swedish original shall prevail.
